Subject: WEB: What I updated this evening:

There were, of course, lots of emails (and I took you OFF of every thread possible and begged others to do the same!), but they resulted in very few website updates.

For example, on <http://www2.epa.gov/goldkingmine/gold-king-mine-data-august-14-2015>

Deliberative Process/Ex. 5

I did the same to this page:

We're still waiting on Region 9 data. It could happen VERY late tonight, but Melissa Harrison is thinking that it won't happen until morning.

So, for now I just wait...
